JUST IMPORTED in Captain Schermerhorn, from New-York, and to be ſold by CHARLES CROUCH, in Elliott-ſtreet, EDWARD JOYCE's famous Great American BALSAM, made in Long-Iſland, ſuperior by Trial, for its Uſe and Efficacy, to any imported from Europe.

IT cures all Manner of Wounds, if curable; the moſt inveterate Ulcers and Fiſtulas, by injecting into the Canals and Sinews of Ulcers and Fiſtulas afore-mentioned. In Wounds, you cure by dipping a Pledget of Lint in the Balſam, and bind up the Wound, uniting the Lips of the Wound as Conveniency offers, renewing once a Day, till cured.

It ſcatters all Manner of Swellings, that are fit to be ſcattered; but Abceſs, and ſuch under that Denomination, are often called Biles, muſt come to Suppuration when it is drawn, and the corrupted Matter taken off it, quickly heals.

For a Cold, attended with violent Coughing, Inflamation of the Glands, Hoarſeneſs, and exceſſive Force for Reſpiration, Pains in the Breaſt, and even the ſtrongeſt Pleuratick Symptoms, it gives immediate Eaſe, by taking in the Morning faſting, a Tea Spoonful of the Balſam, with two or three Tea Spoonfuls of Honey, or for Want of Honey, Sugar.

For violent Falls whereby the internal Parts may be hurt, and a Rexis of the Veſſels, that often bring on a Bleeding at Mouth, Noſe, &c. it ſtops the Blood, and ſcatters the coagulated Blood, and makes it more fluid to paſs away.

In Sprains of the Limbs, Contractions of the Ligaments, Tendons, by anointing with the Balſam before a Fire, it ſupples and relaxes them to their natural Functions.

Pains in the Joints in the upper and lower Limbs, by the ſame Method, it takes away by a few Applications.

Even in the Gout and Rheumatiſm it gives immediate Eaſe, but I don't ſay it is an infallible Cure.

N. B. It cures Conſumptions that are not of long ſtanding, if the Patient is within the Age of Forty Years, by taking a Tea Spoonful of the Balſam, Morning and Night, drinking half a Pint of warm freſh Broth after each Doſe, during the Term of Forty Days.

☞ It has cured a Number of People in New-York, whoſe Names are affixed to the Directions, and a Bottle of it having been brought into this Province the latter End of laſt Winter, it cured ſeveral Perſons of violent Coughs, &c. which were of a long ſtanding.

Sundry Thoughts in Sickneſs, and on the Shortneſs and Viciſſitudes of Human Life.

UNHAPPY we children of the duſt! Why were we born to ſee the ſun?

Why did our mothers bring us forth to miſery, and fondly rejoice to hear us cry?

Whether, alas! has their fondneſs led us? Into how ſad condition doth our birth engage us?

We enter the world with weeping eyes, and go out with ſighing hearts, if not crying.

The few days we live are full of vanity, and our choiceſt pleaſures are ſprinkled with the bittereſt gall.

The time that's paſt is vaniſh'd like a dream, and that which is to come we know not yet at all:

The preſent we are in ſtays but for a moment, and flies away, and returns no more.

Already we are dead to the years we have liv'd, and ſhall never live them over again:

But the longer we live, ſhort indeed is our life; and in the end become a little lump of clay.

O! vain and miſerable world! how truly ſad is this relation.

And yet, alas! this is not all; but new complaints remain, and more, and worſe.

We begin our race in contemptible weakneſs, and our whole courſe is a progreſs of continued dangers.

If we eſcape the miſchanges of childhood, and paſs on to the raſh adventure of youth:

If we outlive thoſe ſudden ſtorms, we are very ſubject to fall into more deſtructive and dangerous evils.

Our ſuperfluous cares deliberately conſume us, and the cruelty of the world wear out our lives.

Should we, by ſtrange ſucceſs, o'ercome all theſe, and ſtill bear up in proſperous gales,

We are ſure, at laſt, old age will find us, and bow our ſtrength down with ſorrow to the grave:——

The grave! from which no privilege exempts, whoſe power no creature is able to controul.

The rich muſt leave their wealth behind them, and the great ones of the world be crumbled into duſt.

The beauteous face muſt be turned into rottenneſs, and the pamper'd body become the food of worms.

The buſy man muſt ſubmit to a time to die, tho' his temporal employment ſpares none to provide for it.

Even the wiſe and virtuous muſt ſubmit to fate, and the heirs of eternal life become the priſoners of death.

OSSIANS Addreſs to the Sun, from Carthon in his Fingal, (a Piece of Ancient Scots Poetry) written 1200 Years ago, before the Times of Chriſtianity, lately tranſlated; with an Addition to give it a Chriſtian turn, as the Reſult of all true Philoſophy:

O THOU that rolleſt above, round as the Shield of my Fathers; whence are thy Beams, O Sun? whence thy everlaſting Light?

Thou comeſt forth in thy awful Splendor and Beauty, and the Stars hide themſelves in the Sky: The Moon cold and pale, ſinks in the Weſtern Wave: But thou thyſelf moveſt alone; who can be the Companion of thy Courſe?

The Oaks of the Mountains fall; the Mountains themſelves decay with Years; the Ocean ſhrinks and grows again; the Moon herſelf is loſt in Heaven: But thou forever art the ſame, rejoicing in the brightneſs of thy Courſe.

When the World is dark with Tempeſts; when Thunder rolls, and Lightning flies, thou looked in thy Beauty from the Clouds, and laugheſt at the Storm: But to Offian thou looked in vain, he ſhall ſoon behold thy Beams no more; whether thy yellow Hair flows on the Eaſtern Clouds, or thou trembleſt at the Gates of the Weſt.

But thou, perhaps, like me, art only for a Seaſon, and thy Years ſhall have an End: Thou ſhalt ſleep in thy Clouds careleſs of the Voice of the Morning. Exult then in thy Sphere, O Sun; rejoice in the Strength of thy Youth!—Age is dark and unlovely; it is like the glimmering Light of the Moon, when it ſhines thro' broken Clouds, and the Miſt is on the Hills; the Blaſt of the North is on the Plains, and the Traveller ſhrinks in his Journey.

The ADDITION.

I can continue here, then, but a little while; I muſt ſoon put off this earthly Tabernacle.—But it is only this decaying Body that can fade and die.—My Soul, which only is myſelf, ſhall continue to live,—to think and act, and flouriſh in immortal Youth.—It ſhall, (if duly qualified by Grace in Chriſt) forever dwell in unfading Bliſs, with the great Father of Spirits, who are his whole Family of Heaven and Earth, with whom it ſhall never ceaſe to drink of the River of his Pleaſures.

O thou eternal Being, the ancient of Days, thou haſt always exiſted before all Ages, and thy Years ſhall never have an End—O thou Almighty Being, the great Genius of the World, by whom all Things exiſt, and without whom nothing could ever have been at all: It is on the free Exertion of thy omniſcient Power and Will, that all Things depend, and thou art the great Source of all Being, Perfection and Happineſs.

Thou, like the Sun to this World of Bodies, art the glorious Sun of the World of Spirits, the Light and Life of every created Intelligence;—the Light that can never be extinguiſhed; the Life that can never die.

Then, O my GOD, I will ever devoutly acknowledge and love, revere and adore:—To thee I will cheerfully reſign; in thee I can never ceaſe to confide, who art always, and every where preſent, whoſe Goodneſs is boundleſs, whoſe Wiſdom is infinite, and whoſe Power is uncontroulable.

Let my whole Soul be entirely devoted to thee, and freely conformed to thy Purity, Rectitude, Truth and Goodneſs, that I may never ceaſe to be Happy in thee, my God, and in myſelf and others, rejoicing together with them, in the ever flowing Streams of thy inexhauſtible Benevolence.

Quod faxit DEUS Pater, o. m. idq Mediante ejus Filio Jeſu Chriſto, atq renovante Spiritu ſancto: Cui, JEHOVÆ, Æterno, Uno, Trino, omnis tribuatur Laus, Honos & Gloria, in Seculo ſeculorum. AMEN.

QUEBEC, APRIL 28.

The following are the Names of the Engliſh inhabitants whoſe Houſes were burnt at the late Fire of Montreal, viz. Dr. Robertſon, Lazarus David, John Crozier, Matthew Wade, Holmes and Morriſon, Jonas Deſaulles,—Military Proveſt.

BOSTON, MAY 16.

We learn by Letters by Capt. Jarvis, that the latter End of February, a Bill was brought into Parliament to continue the Bounty on Greenland Ships to the Year 1770, when the Act favourable to the American Fiſhery expires: The Bill was ſupported by Adminiſtration. The Miniſtry declared their Idea to be, that both Acts might expire together, when they could take the Matter up in the whole, and give that Preference to the Britiſh Ships as would weaken and leſſen the American Fiſhery. Mr. Gr—v—lle ſaid that he intended to have thrown the whole Branch of Buſineſs into the Hands of the Americans, conſidering them too, as part of the Britiſh Empire, and as ſuch ſubject to the Supreme Legiſlative Controul of Parliament; but ſince the Americans, had denied this ſupreme Power,—ſince they held Opinions the moſt dangerous, the moſt traiterous to this Country, ſince even ſome in England had doubted the Supreme Power of Parliament over them—he had changed his Views, and thought every Encouragement, every Preference ought to be given to the Britiſh Ships:—He alſo declared in the Houſe, that the Americans had no Right at all, none, to the Fiſhery, it was conquered by our Arms or protected by our Power, and that all the Privilege of Fiſhing which America had, was by the Favour, Indulgence and Kindneſs of Great-Britain: When Mr. Gr—v—lle mentioned the Fiſhery he extended it to all the Fiſheries; and it is ſaid, that it has been the Contemplation to lay an heavy Duty upon every fiſhing Veſſel belonging to this Province.

NEW-LONDON, MAY 6.

On Wedneſday arrived in this Town, from his Seat at Johnſon-Hall, Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON, Baronet, (a Gentleman well known for the great and important Services render'd to his King and Country)—in order to enjoy the Benefit of the Sea Air, and have ſome Relaxation from Indian Affairs, the extreme cloſe Application to which, for many Years, and eſpecially the laſt Winter, has much impair'd his Health.

NEW-YORK, MAY 5.

Seven families of Engliſh farmers, ſome of them men of conſiderable property, conſiſting of forty-three perſons, beſides ſervants, are come over with captain Smith, in order to ſettle in theſe parts. We have not heard their particular reaſons for leaving England. They propoſe to go conſiderably into the buſineſs of the dairy, eſpecially in the manufacture of cheeſe. On monday laſt they ſailed, with their effects, in a large ſloop for Albany.

MAY 16. The hundred pounds purſe, at Upper Marlborough, has been won by Dr. Hamilton's Engliſh horſe Figure, beating the, hitherto, terrifick Selim.

As many incidents occur in a four mile heat, and we have no particulars of the ſport, it is but juſtice to the gallant American, that the public ſhould ſuſpend its deciſive opinion, until the champions have met at Philadelphia next October; when the vanquiſhed may recover, or the victor be confirmed in the triumphant poſt which, to the aſtoniſhment of thouſands, he has ſo ſucceſsfully contended for.

FIGURE was got by a beautiful horſe of that name, the property of the duke of Hamilton; ran five times in England, and won one plate; he alſo ſtarted two years ago againſt five horſes at Annapolis, and beat them in four fine heats.

SELIM, a grandſon of the Godolphin Arabian, and got by governor Sharp's valiant Othello, has run about nine times, and, until this event, proved in every diſpute unconquerable.

The gentlemen of Philadelphia, have raiſed a purſe of one hundred, and two of fifty pounds each, to be run for over their courſe in the fall. The particulars adapted to the late increaſe of fine horſes in the northern colonies, will be adverti'ſed very ſoon.

MAY 23. On Tueſday laſt Week, was held our annual Commencement at St. Paul's Chapel, in this City; when, after the uſual Exerciſes, which were highly applauded by a numerous and polite Audience, the PRESIDENT confered Degrees upon the following Gentlemen,—

BENJAMIN MOORE, GOUVERNEUR MORRIS, JOHN STEVENS, GULIEN VERPLANCK, JAMES LUDLOW, CHARLES DOUGHTY, PETER VAN SCHANCK, } B. A.

Rev. JOHN BEARDSLEY, ROBERT LIVINGSTON, EGBERT BENSON, } M. A.

And the following Gentlemen, Profeſſors of MEDICINE, were admitted, ad eundem,—

PETER MIDDLETON, SAMUEL CLOSSY, JOHN JONES, SAMUEL BARD, } M. D.

And the Rev. Mr. MYLES COOPER, L. L. D.

On the ſame Day two Silver Medals, were publicly preſented to Meſſrs. Moore and Morris, by the LITERARY SOCIETY.

Capt. Hunt from Bermuda informs us, that his Majeſty's Sloop of War the Ferrit, Capt. Bickerton, had lately put into that Iſland, on her Voyage from Jamaica for London, having on board about £. 40,000 on Account of the London Merchants; that Capt. Bickerton had been in a bad State of Health, but was much recovered, and propoſed to ſail for London a few Days after Capt. Hunt.
